MUSICIANS PACK CAPETOWN HALL

The Capetown town hall is a capacious building holding nearly 30 people, yet at each of the Cherniavsky trio's recitals, many would-be auditors were turned away disappointed, as the town hall authorities were forced to stop the sale of seats.

"With their wonderful personality and talent, Leo, Jan and Mischel Cherniavsky—violinist, pianist and cellist respectively—have carried the banner of success into 16 countries, and like Alexander the Great have been looking for more fields to conquer," declares an advance agent.

"Musical London has struck its colors despite the influential prejudice against youth. The great Cherniavsky have recently marched triumphantly through South Africa for the third time, and India and the East for

THEATRICAL OFFERINGS

BISHOP DISGUISES AS LUNATIC

A prize fight scene, glimpses on the inside of an academy for young ladies, an escaped lunatic in action, a bishop in the guise of the escaped lunatic, the prize fight raided by the police—all these are scenes that interest, excite and produce mirth in "What Happened to Jones?" the week-end offering at the Bijou theater.

The World Film Corporation is supplying an excellent service to the Bijou theater and has sent a number of splendid films to Honolulu, but none that it has previously handled.

FOREST MAIDEN WINS JACK CHANTY

"If you want to see a typically American photo-play go to the Popular theater this week, says the publicity manager of the theater. It is there in all its virility. The principals in the production are Max Figman and Lolita Robertson and they are supported by a romantic drama set in extraordinary scenes of the big outdoors and shown to the best advantage from the standpoint of photography."

The picture is entitled "Jack Chanty." Red-blooded men match their wits with cravens in the heart of the forest and on the rugged sides of mountains, while the love of a woman and the second time, where they have broken all records."

They appear in Honolulu on September 20 at the Opera House.

NEW MOVIE STAR IN STRONG PLAY

Eleanor M. Ingram's romantic drama of the hills and castles of Montenegro will serve as the medium for the introduction of a new star to Honolulu this evening. "The Unafraid" is the offering and Rita Jolivet the star. The place will be the Liberty theater.

Miss Jolivet is heralded as a beautiful and talented screen artist. This will be her initial appearance in this city.

"The Unafraid" will prove considerable of a change from the large amount of comedy that has been in order recently in the film houses. It is a romantic drama with a punch. The plot is laid along new and interesting lines and from all reports the picture should register "big" in this city.

"The Adventures of Kathlyn" will round out the program.

White crows have recently been shot by farmers near Alton, Ill. Many of them are perfectly white without a single black feather.

PILES CURED IN 6 TO 14 DAYS.

the hate of a man battle for supremacy.

"Jack Chanty" deals with a gold mining claim and the love of a quarter-bred Indian maiden. Figman appears in the role of Chanty and Miss Robertson is the maid of the forest. A society belle from the East enters and almost succeeds in winning the hero away from the heroine.

The next big attraction at the Popular will be "Damon and Pythias," to be shown under the auspices of the Knights of Pythias of Honolulu. This promises to be a memorable week in the annals of local moving pictures.

O'ROARK BENEFIT

TICKETS TAKEN
BY AD CLUB MEN

To take charge of the Ad Club end of the Jane O'Roark benefit to be given at the Bijou theater next Wednesday evening, September 15, the following committee has been appointed: C. D. Wright and W. C. Hodges of the Star-Bulletin; James A. Dunbar and Jack Cleary of Henry May & Company, and Neil Slattery of the Honolulu Gas Company. Any of these gentlemen can furnish tickets. They begin receiving reservations this morning.

This occasion, as has been before stated in these columns, has been predicated by the sudden illness of Miss O'Roark, who suffered a severe attack of pneumonia shortly after she arrived in this city to present a series of high-class vaudeville offerings at the Bijou theater. Since that time the talented young lady has been confined at the Queen's hospital.

Those in charge of the program of the evening have not completed all the arrangements as yet, but will announce the full program as soon as possible. Messrs. O'Farrell and Drum, Miss O'Roark's associates, have this in charge and promise an excellent program. All members of the Ad Club are requested to be present upon this occasion, with all of their friends and ladies.
